

MC&FP FACT SHEET

Summer Fun and Fitness

Data

- ✔ Blue Star Museums offers no-cost admission for military families at more than 1,800 museums in all 50 states between Memorial Day and Labor Day.
- ✔ National Lands and Federal Recreational Lands provides an annual pass to military personnel and their families at no cost to more than 2,000 national parks.

Additional information

Morale, Welfare and Recreation

<http://www.militaryonesource.mil/mwr>

Joint Services Campgrounds and Facilities

http://www.militaryonesource.mil/12038/MOS/ResourceGuides/Best\_Kept\_Secrets\_Joint\_Services\_Campgrounds\_and\_Facilities.pdf

Blue Star Museums

<http://arts.gov/national/blue-star-museums>

National Lands and Federal Recreational Lands

<http://www.nps.gov/findapark/passes.htm>

Background

The summer months are traditionally a time of outdoor family fun. Though activities do not need to be extravagant to create lasting memories, the Department of Defense provides unique opportunities for service members and military families to safely enjoy their summer months with little or no expense. Regardless of locations, time commitments or family interests, Morale, Welfare and Recreation, supporting installation and DoD programs, and partnered community organizations are committed connecting service members and military family members to summer fun.

Highlights

- Morale, Welfare and Recreation programs and equipment rental services, including activities for family members with special needs and wounded service members
- Best Kept Secrets Joint Services Campgrounds and Facilities
- Installation youth centers
- Local 4-H programs
- Boys and Girls Clubs
- Health and wellness coaching connections through Military OneSource
- Blue Star Museums
- National Parks and Federal Recreational Lands military pass
- Department of Defense Online Library and installation summer reading programs
- Military OneSource personal financial counselors or installation personal financial managers

