Military OneSource Tax Services

Background

In recognition of the complicated nature of filing taxes as a military service member and in support of financial readiness, the Department of Defense offers tax consultation and e-filing services through Military OneSource at no cost to service members and their families.

Highlights

As part of the Family Readiness System, Military OneSource provides valuable tools and information for tax season:

- The no-cost tax preparation and filing service allows eligible service members and their families to complete and electronically file their federal and up to three state tax returns or filings with the support and experience of tax experts. These filings are backed by a 100 percent accuracy guarantee.
- Military OneSource tax counselors provide specialized support to help service members and their families understand unique tax requirements related to military personnel, maximize their refund and connect to additional resources and services. Tax counselors are available to service members and their families at no cost by calling Military OneSource at 800-342-9647.
- Military OneSource tax counseling and e-filing services promote the financial readiness of service members and their families, helping them to complete their taxes, successfully meet financial obligations and save money for the future.
