Your commissary, exchanges and military community support services are here to serve you!

Your tax-free shopping benefit saves the military family on average more than $3,000 per year on items you need and brands you want. We serve you with low prices and convenient shopping on every military installation around the world...wherever you serve.

We serve you with deep discounts on travel and lodging at premier destinations like the Navy Lodge Hawaii and the Hale Koa Hotel® on Waikiki Beach. Golfing, bowling, youth activities and more are also discounted at prices you won't find in civilian recreation venues. And, we serve you with links to vital information on family services and military life.

Visit any one of our web sites to see how we can serve you today.
