In order to open a MyCAA Account and request up to $4,000 of education financial assistance funding on a course-by-course basis, military spouses must read and electronically sign the following Spouse Terms and Conditions Agreement.

- I agree that I am solely responsible for the establishment and management of my MyCAA Account. Under no circumstances shall I share my account username or password with anyone, including but not limited to my military sponsor or school representatives.
- I agree to develop an Education and Training Plan in coordination with school officials. I understand that a Spouse Education and Career Opportunities Counselor is required to approve this plan prior to my requesting MyCAA financial assistance.
- I understand that the maximum MyCAA financial assistance benefit is $4,000 and that there is a $2,000 annual fiscal year spending cap. Spending cap waivers are available if the spouse's school requires an upfront tuition payment exceeding $2,000 (up to the maximum $4,000 education benefit).

- I understand that I must submit a MyCAA financial assistance (FA) request for each course in my Education and Training Plan on a course-by-course basis between 60 -15 days prior to course start dates. I understand that failure to do so will result in my being held responsible for paying course costs.
- I understand that spouses that have participated in the Career Advancement Accounts program administered by the Department of Labor and funded by the Department of Defense and Department of Labor are not eligible to participate in the MyCAA without a waiver. If spouses have used less than $4,000 from the CAA

- I agree to allow the Department of Defense and my school to share information which is necessary for MyCAA Program administration and paying of school invoices. I understand I am responsible for ensuring that my grades are posted in the AI Portal within 60 days of course completion by school officials. I understand I will not be allowed to use additional MyCAA funding until my grades are posted.
- I understand if I fail or withdraw from a course, my MyCAA Account will be suspended and no financial assistance documents can be created until I contact a Spouse Education and Career Opportunities Counselor. If a second failure or withdrawal is made, I understand that I will not be allowed to receive any further funds from MyCAA.

I understand that my account will be suspended and no additional MyCAA funding will be provided until I complete this course.
- I understand that waivers related to course failures, withdrawals and incompletes are authorized for “hardship” cases (e.g. unanticipated health issues, permanent change of duty location, temporary duty assignments, emergency leave of the military member, or hospitalization for a length of time that precludes course completion). Waiver requests must be signed by my military sponsor’s supervisor or higher authority and uploaded into my MyCAA Account eFile. They must include:
 - (1) Name/title/code of course(s) for which the waiver is requested
 - (2) Reason for the Waiver
 - (3) Name, title and command for military sponsor’s supervisor or higher authority

22. Are currently employed spouses eligible for MyCAA Financial Assistance (FA)?

Yes. Employed spouses can use MyCAA funding for coursework and exams that lead to employment and career advancement in one or more Portable Career Fields and occupations that require a license, certificate, certification or Associate's Degree.

Counselors can provide education and training, career exploration, assessment, employment readiness and career search assistance.

Spouses will have to demonstrate successful completion of their courses in order to continue using MyCAA funding. 27. Can a spouse's MyCAA account be locked?

D. MyCAA Schools

30. Which schools can participate in the MyCAA program?

All schools and institutions participating in the MyCAA Program must be accredited by a regulatory body recognized by the U.S. Department of Education or the Department of Defense. Accreditations must be recognized by national, regional, state or industry standards.

31. How do spouses know if their school is participating?

There are approximately 3,000 schools and campuses participating in the MyCAA Program. Use the "School/Program" button and search function on the MyCAA Spouse Portal (<https://aiportal.acc.af.mil/mycaa>) to view a list of participating schools. The fastest way to get started using MyCAA financial assistance is to choose a school that is already participating.

If their school is not participating, spouses can encourage school officials to visit the School Resources page on the MyCAA Spouse Portal for more information about school eligibility, accreditation requirements, and how to “Come On-Board.”

32. Can spouses complete the online School Eligibility Application for their school?

No. Only school officials can complete this application. This process can take up to 60 days to complete.

33. How does a spouse know when a school has completed the registration process?

- The school’s correct name will appear in the School Search section of the MyCAA Spouse Portal (<https://aiportal.acc.af.mil/mycaa>) once the school has completed the MyCAA School Eligibility screening process, been approved for participation and become a registered user of the AI Portal.
- Spouses should follow up with the school’s MyCAA Representative (e.g. main point of contact) to monitor school eligibility and registration status.
- DO NOT call Spouse Education and Career Opportunities Counselors regarding school registration status. Counselors do not have information on where the school is in the registration process. This significantly delays the School Eligibility and Registration administrative processes which can take up to 60 days. Simply use the School Search function on the MyCAA portal. This can also be accessed directly by using this link.

34. What requirements does MyCAA have for schools?

School officials must sign a MyCAA Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) with the Department of Defense stating they will comply with MyCAA policy and program requirements. They must be accredited by a regulatory body recognized by the Department of Education or Department of Defense. Their staff must abide by requirements of the MyCAA School Users Terms and Conditions Agreement which covers (1) use of the AI Portal for processing invoices and posting grades, (2) being truthful and fair when recruiting students, and (3) applying the SOC Student Bill of Rights to military spouses.

35. Do spouses have to choose a school that is already participating in MyCAA?

- No, but it can take up to 60 days to approve new schools into the MyCAA program.
- If the spouse’s school is not a MyCAA participant, the spouse is encouraged to consider an alternative school that is already participating in MyCAA.
- Spouse Education and Career Opportunities Counselors can recommend affordable school choices that will give similar education value for both traditional classroom and distance learning options.

36. Where do spouses find help choosing a school?

There are several sources of assistance:

- Call Military OneSource (1-800-342-9647) for Career Services including no-cost Career and Education counseling appointments.
- Visit www.careeronestop.org to explore Portable Career Fields and occupations, and to find schools that provide programs of study that lead to licenses, certificates, certifications and Associate’s Degrees in your local area or online.
- Visit your local Community Colleges and use their career and education counseling services.
- Explore Military OneSource’s Spouse Career Center, online at www.militaryonesource.com.
- Visit the MyCAA Spouse Portal (<https://aiportal.acc.af.mil/mycaa>) and use the Program Search function.
- Visit your school’s website to review sample Education and Training Plans.

- Use the School Search function in the MyCAA Spouse Portal to verify schools of interest are participating in MyCAA.
- Meet with school officials from more than one school to discuss and compare course costs, school graduation and program of study completion rates, employment placement rates, availability of school career and student services, the true cost of education loans and availability of additional financial assistance, potential income levels for occupations of interest, etc.

- Apply to the best value schools that meet the spouse's career and education needs.
- Once accepted, enroll at the school and in the program of study of interest.
- Create a MyCAA Education and Training Plan (E&TP) according to MyCAA E&TP guidelines (see MyCAA Spouse Portal front page). Then, seek MyCAA E&TP approval.
- After plan approval, request MyCAA financial assistance for each class that begins within the next 60-15 days.

38. Can spouses encourage a school to participate in MyCAA?

Spouses should encourage school officials to visit the MyCAA Spouse Portal (<https://aiportal.acc.af.mil/mycaa>) to learn more about how to "Come On-Board" with the MyCAA Program. Detailed information is found on the Schools Resource page. NOTE: Information and encouragement do not guarantee that a school will agree to participate or that the school will be eligible for MyCAA participation. Spouses should have an alternative school in mind in case their first choice of school is not available.

39. How long does the "On-Boarding" process take?

- The new School Eligibility and Application process can take up to 60 days.
- The MyCAA School and Program Support Team will provide only school officials with 20-40-60 day status reports regarding application status. They will let school officials know when it is time to register in the AI Portal.

Spouses SHOULD NOT WAIT too long before choosing a school and starting classes. They have 3 years to complete their program of study from the date of their first class.

40. Does MyCAA pay spouses or schools for course costs?

MyCAA Financial Assistance (FA) payments are made directly to schools using the AI Portal, an electronic invoicing system.

41. How do schools get paid?

Schools submit an electronic invoice for course payment through the AI Portal. The invoice is reviewed and approved by DoD Financial Analysts. A Payment Authorization Letter containing government credit card information is sent back to schools through the AI Portal. This letter allows schools to receive payment.

E. MyCAA Education and Training Plans

42. What is a MyCAA Education and Training Plan?

Prior to requesting MyCAA Financial Assistance (FA), spouses must develop an Education and Training Plan (E&TP) detailing the courses they are a planning to take to obtain their Associate's degree, license, certificate or credential. E&TP Guidance and sample documents are found in the Resource Section of the MyCAA Spouse Portal (<https://aiportal.acc.af.mil/mycaa>). Plans are reviewed and approved in the order in which they are received by MyCAA. Approval can take up to 14 business days.

Plans include:

- Portable Career Field and Occupation (called the Spouse's Career Goal)
- School and Campus Location
- Program Type (Associate's Degree, license or credential)
- Program Name
- Course and/or credential exam information (course names and codes) including core course requirements and possible electives.

Once approved by Spouse Education and Career Opportunities Counselors, the E&TP is locked for funding purposes.

- Spouses can only change their stated Career Goal once.
- Coursework changes will require a counselor's assistance if needed after the E&TP is approved

- Spouses can only have a maximum of five E&TPs over the 3 year funding lifetime of their MyCAA account.

If incorrect information is provided, MyCAA FA requests will be rejected during the school invoicing process. If this happens, the spouse may be held responsible by their school to pay course costs.

43. How can military spouses get assistance with their Education and Training Plan(s)?

Spouses can help themselves:

- Read the Education & Training Plan (E&TP) Guidelines posted on the front page of the MyCAA Spouse Portal (<http://aiportal.acc.af.mil/mycaa>). This includes sample plans from sample schools in sample formats.
- Visit www.careeronestop.org to explore Portable Career Fields and find schools that have programs of study leading to licenses, certificates, certifications, and Associate's Degrees.

School officials can help spouses:

- Work with school officials and/or academic advisors to develop a School E&TP.
- This is the best way to ensure required information is correct and to avoid administrative errors and time delays.

Spouse Education and Career Opportunities Counselors (1-800-342-9647) can help spouses:

- Explore career interests, evaluate school options and compare programs of study, including costs.
- Review and approve spouse E&TP(s).
- Make allowable changes to Career Goals and coursework.

44. Why are there delays in getting help?

There are over 1.2 million military spouses eligible to participate in the MyCAA program and over 3,000 schools that are registered in the MyCAA electronic invoicing system. MyCAA answers calls and messages in the order they were received unless they are urgent requirements related to class start dates or graduations.

The fastest way for spouses to get help if they already have an open MyCAA Account is to send a message to a Spouse Education and Career Opportunities Counselor through their Message Box.

Visit the Help/Contact Us and Resource Sections of the MyCAA Spouse Portal (<https://aiportal.acc.af.mil/mycaa>).

45. Why do grades get posted in the MyCAA Spouse Account?

- Failing grades, incompletes and course withdrawals do not help spouses acquire licenses, certificates, degrees or employment. In such cases, MyCAA requires spouses to make contact with a Spouse Education and Career Opportunities Counselor to develop a plan for future success.
- If there is more than one course failure or withdrawal, the spouse's account will be permanently closed.
- Grades must be posted within 60 days of course end dates. Ultimately, it is the spouse's responsibility to ensure grades are posted by school officials. Spouses will not be allowed to receive additional MyCAA funding until this requirement is met.

46. What CANNOT be included in a MyCAA Education and Training Plan?

- Courses with a zero ($0) cost
- Courses being taken to complete a Bachelor's, Master's or Doctoral Degree
- Courses that are being taken on an audit basis or being repeated unless MyCAA has received a full refund from the school

47. Who can make changes to a MyCAA Education and Training Plan?

- Prior to approval, only spouses may make changes to their MyCAA Education and Training Plan (E&TP). However, once a plan has been approved, a Spouse Education and Career Opportunities Counselor must be contacted for changes to be made. Contact a Spouse Education and Career Opportunities Counselor at 1-800-342-9647 or send a message using the MyCAA Account Message Box to request assistance.

- Spouses can only change their E&TP four times over the 3 year funding lifetime of their MyCAA account (for a maximum of five E&TPs).

48. How are Education and Training Plans affected by spouse relocation?

- Relocating spouses are encouraged to contact their Spouse Education and Career Opportunities Counselor to discuss the impacts of relocation on their Education and Training Plans.
- If spouses are enrolled in a distance learning program and plan to continue that program, they will only need to update their Profile information.
- If spouses need to change schools, campus locations or programs of study, they will have to create a new Education and Training Plan and request MyCAA approval.

49. If spouses do not have correct school and course information, should they guess?

NO!

- DO NOT use prior year course catalogs to get information. Information changes every year.
- Spouses need to contact school officials to confirm school name, campus location and course information PRIOR to submitting Financial Assistance (FA) requests on a course-by-course basis.

50. Will MyCAA pay for the same course more than one time?

No. If a spouse needs to repeat a course, the spouse will need to do so at his or her own expense unless MyCAA receives a full refund from the school. MyCAA also does not pay for a course that is being audited or for courses that are ungraded or have no academic credit.

51. Will MyCAA pay for fees?

No. MyCAA only pays for tuition costs for courses and programs of study that lead to associates degrees, licenses, certifications and certificates required by Portable Career fields and occupations. It also pays for the cost of the license or certification test/examination.

52. Will MyCAA pay for Study Abroad Programs?

No. Additionally, MyCAA does not pay costs for transportation, lodging/housing, and other related expenses. MyCAA only pays tuition costs for courses and programs of study offered by participating schools within the United States and for those offered by these same institutions on military bases overseas.

53. What happens if a spouse fails a course?

The spouse's account will be suspended until the spouse talks to a Spouse Education and Career Opportunities Counselor and develops a plan for successfully completing future courses using MyCAA funding. A second course failure or withdrawal will result in the spouse's MyCAA Account being permanently closed.

54. Does adding classes to a MyCAA Education and Training Plan also enroll the spouse in these classes at their school/university?

No, spouses still have to:

- Apply and be accepted at their school and within their programs of study
- Follow school enrollment, course registration and Drop/Add procedures

55. How do spouses add courses to a new or approved Education and Training Plan?

Contact a Spouse Education and Career Opportunities Counselor (1-800-342-9647) or send a Message via the MyCAA Account Message Box for assistance. Changes to Education and Training Plans are restricted.

56. If a spouse wants to add more courses to an already approved plan, do the additional courses need to be approved by MyCAA?

Assistance from a Spouse Education and Career Opportunities Counselor will be required to make changes to an Education and Training Plan. Approval can be made at that time.

57. How long does it take for an Education and Training Plan to be approved?

It takes approximately 14 business days. Once an Education and Training Plan is submitted, the plan is automatically entered into a queue in the system to be approved. Plans are worked in the order that they are received. Messages are no longer required to be sent to counselors requesting approval. Please do not send multiple messages requesting plan approval as this further delays the review and assessment process.

58. How will a spouse know if his or her license or certification qualifies as a portable career?

The Department of Labor and Department of Defense define a portable career as one that is high growth; high demand; largest employment; and most likely to have job openings in military duty locations. These types of careers are plentiful in many locations where the Armed Forces stations military families. Spouse Education and Career Opportunities Counselors (1-800-342-9647) can provide career and education counseling that will help spouses find licenses, certifications and other credentials that are recognized by the Departments of Labor and Defense as portable. They can also direct spouses to testing sources for these credentials and testing organizations that are registered participants in the MyCAA Program. For more information, spouses should visit the Tests Page in the MyCAA Spouse Portal (<https://aiportal.acc.af.mil/mycaa>).

59. Can a spouse's Associate's Degree be in any subject?

Spouses must pursue an Associate's Degree, license or certification in a portable career field. For example, Associate Degrees in general education would not be considered a good or acceptable career choice. Associate's Degrees in General Studies and Liberal Arts are not eligible for MyCAA funding.

60. Are there any restrictions in Associate's Degrees as to what MyCAA will pay for? Will MyCAA pay for general course requirements as well as career specific requirements (e.g. some Associate's Degrees require physical education or orientation seminars or English 100)?

Courses that are required by the school as part of an Associate's Degree will be paid for. Remember, Associate's Degrees in General Studies and Liberal Arts are not eligible for MyCAA funding.

F. MyCAA Financial Assistance (FA)

61. Why is the Department of Defense (DoD) providing Financial Assistance (FA) to military spouses?

DoD is providing MyCAA financial assistance to eligible military spouses in order to assist them in becoming qualified for Portable Career employment opportunities. MyCAA funding shall not be used to pay for recreational or personal enrichment courses unless these are also requirements for approved programs of study leading to licenses, certificates, certifications or an Associate's Degree (e.g. electives).

62. When can a spouse apply for MyCAA Financial Assistance (FA)?

After spouses have created an Education and Training Plan and received MyCAA approval, they can request financial assistance on a course-by-course basis for courses starting within 60 days and no later than 15 days before the start date of the course. Courses that have different start and/or end dates must be on separate FA requests. FA's can take up to 14 business days to be approved.

63. How do spouses apply for Financial Assistance (FA)?

- Open a MyCAA Account.
- Create an Education and Training Plan and get it approved by a Spouse Education and Career Opportunities Counselor.
- Follow step-by-step guidance for requesting MyCAA financial assistance in the MyCAA Spouse Portal. Spouses will need to know course start and end dates, course code, course title, and tuition. Spouses should contact schools for this information. PLEASE NOTE: If a school requires the use of their course catalog, courses cannot be entered manually. If required courses are not listed in the catalog, spouses should contact their school for further assistance.
- Once the FA request is approved, print the MyCAA FA documents and take them to the school if course registration and enrollment is required onsite at the school. Keep in mind that school officials can see spouse FA requests in real time (including changes made to these requests) in their AI Portal Accounts.
- School officials can reserve a space in a course for the spouse who has an approved FA document.
- If a spouse enrolls in a course without an approved FA document, the spouse will be held responsible for course costs.

64. How do spouses print a Financial Assistance (FA) document?

Follow step-by-step guidance on the MyCAA Spouse Portal (<https://aiportal.acc.af.mil/mycaa>).

65. How do spouses edit Financial Assistance (FA) information after it has been approved?

Contact a Spouse Education and Career Opportunities Counselor for more information and assistance: 1-800-342-9647 or send a Message via the spouse MyCAA Account Message Box.

66. How does the fiscal year cap affect my MyCAA funding?

The funds for the MyCAA program are based on the government fiscal year which runs from October 1st to September 30th. Therefore, it is very important for spouses to plan how they will pay for their schooling throughout the year. Some important information about the MyCAA program's fiscal year is listed below:

- There is a $2,000 fiscal year spending cap (a maximum of $2,000 can be used per fiscal year)
- The $2,000 fiscal year cap is based on the start date of the course or program, not the date the financial assistance (FA) request is submitted or approved.
- Spouses should pay close attention to the fiscal year dates so that they can plan accordingly for the next fiscal year
- If all of the spouses' MyCAA funds are not used within 3 years from the start date of the first course on their first FA request, those funds will be forfeited. Additionally, all courses must be completed by the end of the three year period.

The examples below show how the fiscal year cap can impact spouses' MyCAA funding. Examples are based on a new MyCAA account with $4,000.

Example 1: If only $1,000 is used in the first fiscal year of the MyCAA account, then $2,000 can be used in the second fiscal year, and $1,000 can be used in the third fiscal year, not to exceed $4,000.

Example 2: If only $300 is requested at the end of the first fiscal year, another $2,000 of MyCAA funding can be used in the second fiscal year. The remaining $1,700 cannot be used until the 3rd fiscal year.

Example 3: If only $500 is used in the first fiscal year of the MyCAA account and $500 is used in the second fiscal year, only $2,000 would be available to use in the 3rd fiscal year. If $2,000 is used in the 3rd fiscal year, the remaining $1,000 left in the account would be forfeited since it was not used during the first and second fiscal years.

If additional educational funding is needed, spouses should contact Military OneSource at 1-800-342-9647 for information on other financial assistance programs.

67. What if a spouse is planning on getting a certification that is going to cost more than $2,000 up front? Can the $2,000 per year cap be exceeded?

Yes, there is a waiver process built into the MyCAA program for licenses and certifications that require up-front tuition that is greater than $2,000 with a total expenditure limit of $4,000. Spouses should contact a Spouse Education and Career Opportunities Counselor (1-800-342-9647 or by MyCAA Account Message Box) for assistance in requesting a waiver from MyCAA policy requirements.

68. When does the $2,000 per fiscal year cap begin?

The fiscal year for 2010 is October 25, 2010 ending on September 30, 2011. Each year after that it will be October 1 through September 30 the following year.

69. When will the three year time limit begin?

The three year time limit to use MyCAA funding begins on the start date of the first course taken by a spouse using MyCAA financial assistance after 25 October 2010.

70. Can spouses get money back from MyCAA for classes that have already started or been completed?

MyCAA does not provide reimbursements of any kind to spouses. Adjustments are sometimes made to MyCAA Spouse Accounts if refunds are made by schools back to the MyCAA credit card that was used to pay for a course that was cancelled by the school or if the spouse was able to drop a course before the end of the school's Drop/Add period. But MyCAA does not pay for courses that have already started or been taken by the spouse at his or her own expense.

If a spouse or school deliberately commits fraud by entering incorrect information into the MyCAA system, they can both be permanently disenrolled from the MyCAA program. They may also face serious legal and financial consequences.

71. Can a spouse use MyCAA Financial Assistance (FA) at a school that is not participating in MyCAA?

No. This is also true for testing organizations. MyCAA can only pay schools and institutions if they have been vetted, approved and registered to participate in the MyCAA program

72. Do organizations that offer Continuing Education Units (CEU), Bar or CPA Exams have to register to receive MyCAA FA payments?

Yes. This is the only way they can receive payments for courses and credentialing exams.

73. What other benefits are available to spouses once their funding is spent?

Military OneSource (1-800-342-9647) has prepared a comprehensive list of additional sources of financial assistance that can be used by spouses who are seeking education and training for portable careers. They can also provide career counseling to help spouses explore portable career options, learn more about their own interests, skills and abilities, and develop critical job search and networking skills. Additional Career Services are also available to MyCAA spouses who have completed their programs of study using MyCAA funding and who are now ready for gainful employment.
