Presentations

Evan Hendricks

Since 1981, Evan Hendricks has been Editor/Publisher and founder of Privacy Times, a newsletter based in the Washington, D.C. area. Through the newsletter, he has published nearly 3,000 pages covering a wide range of privacy and information law subjects, including the Fair Credit Reporting Act, Privacy Act, Freedom of Information Act and the USA Patriot Act.

Hon. John J. Hargrove

Former U.S. Bankruptcy Court Judge John J. Hargrove retired at the beginning of 2008. He provided 22 years of federal service as a bankruptcy judge, five of which were as Chief Judge. In 2004, he organized and launched the nationally acclaimed Credit Abuse Resistance Education (CARE) Program in San Diego County. He and volunteer attorney CARE teams have made presentations in numerous high schools and other organizations to help ensure that young people understand the benefits of financial literacy and stability.

Trevor Romain

Trevor Romain has taken what he has learned over the past two decades from speaking to tens of thousands of children and creates a product to promote social, emotional, and health fitness for students. Mr. Romain has long differentiated himself as a one-of-a-kind speaker, children's author/illustrator and children's advocate by speaking to children in their own language.
