

PSB-CY Training Metrics for DoD Supported Platforms

The Department of Defense has partnered with several Research Centers and organizations to develop resources, trainings, and tools to support military professionals as they provide PSB-CY services. This infographic provides information on the specific roles and resources that have been developed by each organization to assist the DoD with the PSB-CY effort. The key describes whether the listed resources are Priority, Recommendation, or Optional for the various DoD Platforms. A description of each of the PSB-CY resources is provided on page 2.
