

It's up to all of us to protect children and teens.

Everyone should report known or suspected child abuse and neglect.

Call 911 or military law enforcement if a child is in immediate danger.

*Call your nearest Family Advocacy Program office at _____.

*Call your local law enforcement office at _____.

*Call your local Child Protective Services office at _____.

Mandated reporters are required to report known or suspected child abuse and neglect to FAP, CPS and law enforcement officials whether it is occurring on or off an installation.*
