

THE RESERVE COMPONENT SPOUSE AT A GLANCE

2019 DOD Survey of Reserve Component Spouses

Demographics

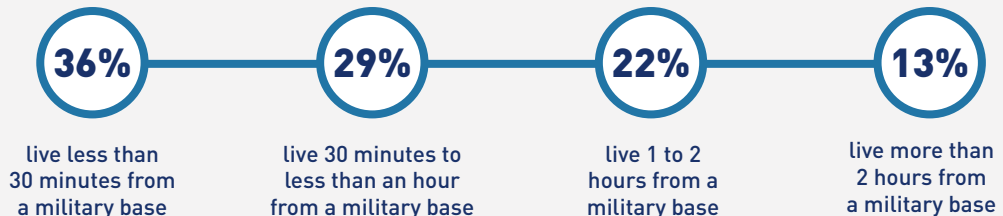

Note: Respondents were able to select more than one race category

MEMBER SERVICE EXPERIENCE

WHERE THEY LIVE

Physical and Emotional Well-Being

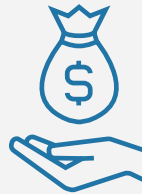

GENERAL HEALTH RATING

62% of reserve component spouses said that their general health is excellent or very good

FINANCIAL WELL-BEING

68% feel financially comfortable

SPOUSE ACTIVATION AND DEPLOYMENTS

42% of spouses had an activation in the past 24 months

51% of activations resulted in deployment

50% of recent deployments were to a combat zone

LEVEL OF PERSONAL STRESS

48% of reserve component spouses reported their current level of stress as good

MARITAL QUALITY

60% are satisfied/very satisfied with their marriage

MILITARY LIFE SATISFACTION

61% are satisfied with the National Guard/Reserve way of life

Employment

EMPLOYMENT STATUS

37%

of spouses work part-time to spend time with children

58%

of spouses took time off work due to activation/deployments

Education

HIGHEST DEGREE

