

Relocation Assistance Program Data Dictionary

The following established style guidelines reflect the practices of developers and editors of content for the relocation assistance program area. They are consistent with the rules and guidance outlined in the Associated Press Stylebook and reflective of Office of Military Community and Family Policy and usage preferences.

DO

- Pay attention to the overall organization and flow of an article. Information and ideas should be logically organized, and there should be some sense of continuity or “flow” from one idea to the next.
- Avoid redundancy.
- Write in gender-neutral terms, except if appropriate (e.g., gender-specific services/groups).
- Write in relationship-neutral terms, such as “partner” or “couple.”
- Clarify statements and ideas with adequate details and clear explanation.
- Ensure that subheads reflect the content of the following text.
- Focus on the positive side of content as much as possible. Put the positive message at the beginning of the sentence.
- Keep the wide audience range in mind.

DO NOT

- Make assumptions.
- Tell people how they feel.
- Tell people what they should/need to/must/ought/can't/won't do.
- Tell people what they always/never do.

FORMATTING

- “Less is more” – be concise.
- Use bulleted formatting for clarity when appropriate.

GENERAL

- Keep sentences short.
