

Personal Property Office — U.S. TRANSCOM

Program Content Guide

The following established style guidelines reflect the longstanding practices of developers and editors of content for the USTRANSCOM Program area. They are consistent with rules and guidance outlined in the Associated Press Stylebook and reflective of Office of Military Community and Family Policy style and usage preferences.

Do

- Pay attention to the overall organization and flow of an article. Information and ideas should be logically organized, and there should be some sense of continuity or flow from one idea to the next.
- Avoid redundancy.
- Write in gender-neutral terms, unless gender-specific terms for services/groups are appropriate.
- Write in relationship-neutral terms, such as “partner” or “couple.”
- Flesh out and clarify statements and ideas.
- Ensure that subheads reflect the content of the following text.
- Focus on the positive side of content as much as possible.
- Keep the wide audience range in mind.

Do Not

- Make assumptions.
- Tell people how they feel.
- Tell people what they should/need to/must/ought to/can't/won't do.
- Tell people what they always/never do.

Formatting

- “Less is more” — be concise.
- Use bulleted formatting for clarity when appropriate.
